Disclaimer

The University with its members or agents shall not be liable for damage caused to the participants or their belongings, except that the damage was caused intentionally or through gross negligence. This does not apply to personal injury caused in this respect. There is no liability for consequential damages. The statutory provisions shall apply. In the case of invalidity of individual clauses, the other clauses shall remain valid. German law shall exclusively be applicable.

Right of information

You have the right upon request to receive information about your data stored by the Albert-Ludwigs-University and the right to ask for rectification of inaccurate data (access and rectification). A request for information or corrections should be directed in writing to Steffen Entenmann.

Liability/insurance

There is no liability insurance coverage for persons participating in the training program offered by the University of Freiburg. The University of Freiburg as well as its employees, members, associates and servants shall therefore not be liable for damages resulting from the participation in the training program or on the way to/during travel related to the training program. Claims that cannot be excluded in accordance to mandatory law, especially damages caused deliberately or through gross negligence by the University or damages to the body, life or physical condition or health, remain unaffected. It is recalled that there may be no statutory accident insurance coverage during the participation in the training program of the University of Freiburg.

Copyright law

Work documents distributed in the context of training events are protected by copyright and may not - even in extracts - be copied without the written permission of the author/holder of copyright.

Data protection / Right of information

The data transmitted to the University of Freiburg is only stored for contract processing purposes and is not intended for disclosure to third parties. You have the right upon request to receive information about your data stored and the right to ask for rectification of inaccurate data (access and rectification). A request for information or corrections should be directed in written form to Dr. Steffen Entenmann.

The participant agrees that photographic material taken of him/her during the course may be used by the Chair of Silviculture for promotional and educational purposes. It will not be forwarded to third parties. The participants can object to this agreement by sending an email to Dr. Steffen Entenmann.
